NEWS FROM THE NURSE:

The Farm to Table program of Western Pennsylvania has published the 1st Annual Western PA Local Food Guide. This magazine includes a directory of local farms, producers and outlets, farmers markets, and community supported agriculture (CSA) to help connect more consumers to local PA food. There are also some delicious recipes and other "local food hacks." Mrs. Chiles was able to get free magazines to send home with every student. Be on the look-out for one to come home with your child soon!
