According to final regulations of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Buckley Amendment) dated June 17, 1976, and Act 26 of the Pennsylvania School Code, 1995, it is no longer necessary to obtain written consent to release records. It states that school officials, including teachers within the educational institution and officials of other schools in school systems in which the student may intend to enroll, may receive a student's record without a written consent for such release.
