

GENERAL MCLANE SCHOOL DISTRICT

How To Resolve Concerns Quickly and Efficiently

Your teachers and principals care about you and your students, and they have the most direct access to address your issue. In nearly all situations, if you have a concern about your child's educational experience, the fastest and most efficient way to a positive result is by starting at your school with the teacher and/or principal.

If you are reaching out to the school and still need help, please use this chart as your guide.
