

EDUCATIONAL IMPROVEMENT TAX CREDIT

The Pennsylvania Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) Program is administered by the Department of Community & Economic Development (DCED) under Act 48. Established in 2001, the Program awards tax credits to businesses that make contributions to Scholarship Organizations or Educational Improvement Organizations.

These organizations must be approved by the DCED. An updated list of approved organizations can be found at <https://dced.pa.gov/educational-improvement-organizations/>. The General McLane Foundation is a DCED approved Education Improvement Organization and eligible to receive your EITC contributions!

What are the Benefits of Contributing?

- Donate to a local, community-focused organization and reduce your PA State tax obligation at the same time—win-win!
- Strengthen the community's student experience and education by contributing to first-class innovative educational programs the General McLane Foundation supports
- Control where your PA State tax dollars go—redirect a portion of your PA State tax dollars to the General McLane Foundation and keep your business's tax dollars local.

What Does EITC Mean for My Business?

Contributions to General McLane Foundation through the EITC program reduce your business's PA State tax obligation.

- The tax bill for your business is reduced dollar-for-dollar of the eligible tax credit amount
- Per DCED guidelines, 75% of business contributions through EITC to General McLane Foundation result in a tax credit to your business. For example, contributing $1,000 to the General McLane Foundation will reduce your PA State tax obligation by $750!
