Is your temporary living situation:

- A shelter, hotel, weekly-rate housing, or campground because nothing else is available to you?
- Housing with no electricity, water, and/or heat?
- Doubled up with other people due to loss of housing, economic hardship, being kicked out or running away from home?

Yes?

Make sure you know your rights to receive services and support in your school under the Federal McKinney-Vento Act and Pennsylvania State Law.

You have the right to:

- Enroll in school and attend classes immediately, even if lacking documents normally required for enrollment.
- Stay in the same school, even if you move, and receive free transportation to and from that school if it is in your best educational interest.
- Participate fully in all school activities and programs.
- Help planning for college and post-secondary opportunities.
